

Survey of Jewish History and Holocaust-Related Sites in Moldova
Initiated by Stuart Saffer, JDC Country Director for Moldova and Ukraine, in 2004.
Donated to CJA in 2021.

Execution site in Alexandreni

Type of site: Execution site

Brief story:

In June 1941 the village has been occupied by the Romanian armies. Jewish population of the village was executed on an agriculture field.

The place is: The place of execution is not secured object.

Size of the object: about 100-200 sq. m.

Access to the object: open to all.

Presents of the monument or the sign: There is no memorable sign

Care of object and monument today: Nobody take care of the object.
Nowadays just a few people can clear show the place.

Suggestions/ Recommendations: To establish a memorable sign on a place of execution.